Speakers & Staff

Rabbi Dr. Ivan Lerner, a former principal and educational superintendent is the Rabbi Emeritus of the 600-family Claremont Hebrew Congregation in Cape Town. He is a Past Chairman of the South African Rabbinical Association. Dr. Lerner's background includes specialties in rabbinics, psychology and education . He has written numerous articles on family issues, parenting, communication and conflict resolution. Dr. Lerner became a household name in Australia through his radio appearances and advice columns which were nationally syndicated through the Australian Jewish News. His inspirational television appearances in South Africa drew large and loyal audiences. Since 2002 Rabbi Dr Lerner has traveled bimonthly to London where he serves as a Senior Lecturer at the Jewish Learning Exchange. Most recently Rabbi Lerner has lectured in Paris, Antwerp, Frankfurt, and Munich.

As a licensed psychologist Dr. Lerner is often called upon to discuss themes which require a blending of his spiritual, educational and psychological background. Currently, he and his wife Arleeta, also a former school principal, reside in suburban Washington, D.C. where he is a consultant to schools, synagogues, and businesses in the USA and overseas.

Erica Brown is the Scholar-in-Residence for the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington and its Deputy Managing Director of Education and Leadership. She directs the Federation's Jewish Leadership Institute and formerly served as the Scholar-in-Residence for the Combined Jewish Philanthropies of Boston.

She completed her undergraduate studies at Yeshiva University and continued her graduate work at the University of London and Harvard University. She was a Jerusalem Fellow and is a faculty member of the Wexner Heritage Foundation.

Erica lectures widely in the United States, in addition to extensive writing in journals of education and Jewish studies. She has chapters in Jewish Legal Writings by Women, Torah of the Mothers and Wisdom from All My Teachers and writes a weekly internet essay on the Torah portion of the week. Erica is the author of the forthcoming book, The Sacred Canvas: The Hebrew Bible in the Eyes of the Artist.

Dr. Jeremy Brown lectures especially on the nexus between halachah and medicine. He is the research director for emergency medicine at George Washington University.

Dr. Brown is the former editor of Jewish Medical Update and is widely published in medical journals. He co-edited the book, Venous Thromboembolic Emergencies and is rrently completing a textbook on emergency medicine for Oxford University Press.
